

The International LMS Engineering Simulation Conference 2008

Disneyland Resort Paris, 8-9 October 2008

The International LMS Engineering Simulation Conference 2008 will be held at Disneyland Resort Paris, France on 8 and 9 October 2008.

We kindly invite you to attend our 2-day conference featuring real-life applications for 1D, 3D and optimization simulation technologies.

The conference is the ideal venue for engineering executives, senior managers and technical experts to discuss how to innovate and accelerate the process of functional performance engineering.
